

UNFURNISH

Meaning: To remove furniture and furnishings from a space, leaving it empty.

1. The old mansion was unfurnished, revealing the beauty of its architectural details.
2. After the tenants moved out, the landlord decided to unfurnish the apartment before showing it to potential renters.
3. She preferred to unfurnish the room completely to create a more spacious feel.
4. When redecorating, he chose to unfurnish the space in order to start fresh with new furniture.
5. The estate sale included many items, but the family decided to unfurnish the house before it was listed for sale.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfurnish>