

UNGOWN

Meaning: Ungown: (adjective) not wearing a gown; in a state of being without a gown.

1. The bride felt a mix of excitement and anxiety as she stood ungown in front of the mirror.
2. After the ceremony, she changed into a comfortable dress, leaving her wedding gown ungown in the corner.
3. The ungown state of the dress allowed for easier movement during the reception.
4. She looked stunning even while ungown, with her hair and makeup still perfectly in place.
5. As the evening wore on, her friends encouraged her to embrace the ungown freedom and dance without restraint.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ungown>