

UNHALLOW

Meaning: Unhallow (verb): To desecrate or make unholy, particularly in reference to sacred places or things.

1. The ancient rituals were meant to unhallow the sacred ground, allowing for the dark forces to rise.
2. He felt a chill run down his spine as he stepped into the unhallowed cemetery at dusk.
3. Legends whispered of the unhallowed woods where spirits roamed, seeking revenge for their untimely demise.
4. To unhallow a place once blessed is to invite chaos and despair into the hearts of those who dwell nearby.
5. The unhallowed whispers of the past echoed in his mind, reminding him of the choices that led to his downfall.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unhallow>