

UNHARBOR

Meaning: To unharbor means to remove or eliminate negative influences or projects from a particular environment or community.

1. The policy aimed to unharbor any negative influences from the community.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the city decided to unharbor the controversial project.
3. She chose to unharbor her doubts and embrace the new opportunity with enthusiasm.
4. To foster a positive environment, they worked diligently to unharbor any lingering resentments.
5. His ability to unharbor past grievances allowed for a fresh start in their friendship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unharbor>