

UNHASP

Meaning: To unhasp means to unfasten or release something that is secured or locked, typically by removing a clasp or similar fastening device.

1. The organization decided to unhasp the old files to make room for new documents.
2. After years of being locked away, she finally found the key to unhasp the memories of her past.
3. He struggled to unhasp the tangled mess of cables behind his computer desk.
4. To access the hidden compartment, you must first unhasp the intricate latch.
5. She reached for the necklace, hoping to unhasp it without damaging the delicate chain.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unhasp>