

UNHEART

Meaning: To unheart means to deprive someone of hope or emotional strength; to dishearten.

1. The heartbreaking news seemed to unheart the entire community.
2. His cruel words served to unheart any remaining hope she had.
3. In a world filled with sorrow, it was easy for joy to unheart under the weight of despair.
4. The relentless criticism from his peers would eventually unheart anyone's passion for the project.
5. Time can often unheart the most vibrant memories, leaving only shadows of the past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unheart>