

UNHOLD

Meaning: Unhold (verb): to lift a suspension or pause on something, allowing it to proceed or be implemented again.

1. The council decided to unhold the proposed regulations after further discussion.
2. After much deliberation, the committee chose to unhold the project that had been paused.
3. In light of new evidence, they agreed to unhold the investigation into the incident.
4. The management team voted to unhold the initiative that had been on the back burner for months.
5. She was relieved when they finally decided to unhold her application for the scholarship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unhold>