

UNHOOK

Meaning: To unhook means to detach or remove something that is fastened or caught, such as a clasp or a fish.

1. Please unhook the clasp from the necklace before you try to wear it.
2. She managed to unhook the fish from the line without getting her hands wet.
3. After the storm, he had to unhook the branches that had tangled around the fence.
4. To access the attic, you need to unhook the ladder from the wall.
5. The teacher asked the students to unhook their backpacks from the coat rack.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unhook>