

UNHOSPITABLE

Meaning: Unhospitable refers to an environment that is harsh, unwelcoming, or unsuitable for sustaining life or providing comfort.

1. The journey through the barren desert revealed how truly unhospitable the environment could be for weary travelers.
2. Despite its breathtaking views, the mountain range proved to be largely unhospitable during the harsh winter months.
3. Many species struggle to survive in the unhospitable conditions of the deep ocean, where sunlight cannot penetrate.
4. The remote island was beautiful but largely unhospitable, with few resources for sustaining human life.
5. Her experience in the unhospitable tundra taught her the importance of preparation and resilience in extreme weather.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unhospitable>