

UNILATERAL

Meaning: Unilateral: made or done by one party or side only, without the agreement or consultation of others.

1. The country announced a unilateral decision to withdraw from the treaty without consulting its allies.
2. Her unilateral approach to the project raised concerns among team members who preferred collaboration.
3. In a unilateral move, the government implemented new regulations without public input or discussion.
4. The company's unilateral changes to the contract left many clients feeling blindsided and unhappy.
5. He made a unilateral choice to relocate, which ultimately affected his entire family.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unilateral>