

UNINFRINGIBLE

Meaning: Uninfringeable: incapable of being violated or infringed upon, particularly in relation to fundamental rights or dignities.

1. The concept of individual rights asserts that certain freedoms are uninfringeable, no matter the circumstances.
2. In a democratic society, the uninfringeable nature of human dignity must be upheld at all costs.
3. The court ruled that the artist's right to expression was uninfringeable, protecting their work from censorship.
4. She believed that personal privacy was uninfringeable, deserving respect from both the government and society.
5. In his speech, he emphasized the need to recognize uninfringeable principles as the foundation of justice.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uninfringible>