UNIPERSONAL

Meaning: Unipersonal refers to a structure, especially in business or linguistics, that involves or is operated by a single individual or has only one subject without a direct object.

1. The term 'unipersonal' often describes a business structure that is owned and run by a single individual.

2. In linguistics, unipersonal verbs refer to those that have only one subject and no direct object.

3. Her unipersonal approach to leadership allowed her to make quick decisions without needing consensus.

4. The unipersonal nature of the project meant that all responsibilities fell on her shoulders.

5. In some regions, unipersonal companies are favored for their simplicity and low regulatory burden.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unipersonal