

UNISON

Meaning: Unison refers to the simultaneous performance or occurrence of multiple voices or actions, producing a harmonious or unified effect.

1. The choir sang in unison, creating a beautiful harmony that filled the hall.
2. The team members raised their voices in unison, expressing their agreement with the plan.
3. As the dancers moved across the stage, they did so in perfect unison, mesmerizing the audience.
4. The protesters marched in unison, their chants resonating through the streets with determination.
5. During the meeting, everyone nodded in unison, signaling their support for the proposed changes.
6. The choir sang in unison, creating a beautiful harmony that filled the auditorium.
7. As the protestors marched down the street, they shouted slogans in unison to amplify their message.
8. The dancers moved in unison, their synchronized steps captivating the audience.
9. During the meeting, everyone agreed in unison on the importance of prioritizing sustainability initiatives.
10. The musicians played their instruments in unison, producing a powerful and cohesive sound that resonated throughout the hall.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unison>