

UNIT

Meaning: A 'unit' is a distinct part or component of a larger system or project, often designed for a specific purpose or function.

1. The research team was thrilled to receive a grant to build a new experimental unit for their project.
2. In the classroom, each student was assigned a unit on environmental science to present to the class.
3. The architect designed a modular unit that could easily be expanded as the needs of the community grew.
4. The health department recommended a unit of measurement to standardize food portion sizes across the industry.
5. After months of training, she finally felt like a valuable unit within her team at work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unit>