

UNITARY

Meaning: Unitary refers to a system of government in which power is concentrated in a central authority, with limited autonomy for regional or local entities.

1. The country adopted a unitary system of government to strengthen central authority.
2. In a unitary state, most of the power resides in the central government rather than regional entities.
3. Her presentation focused on the advantages of a unitary approach in managing public services.
4. The unitary design of the software allows for seamless integration across multiple platforms.
5. Many argue that a unitary educational system promotes equality by standardizing curricula nationwide.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unitary>