

UNKISS

Meaning: UNKISS (verb): To remove or retract a kiss, often symbolically representing the act of letting go or moving on from a connection or memory.

1. The child decided to unkiss the frog, believing it was time to let go of the fairy tale.
2. In a symbolic gesture, she chose to unkiss the memories that haunted her past.
3. He felt compelled to unkiss the moment, realizing that some experiences were better left untouched.
4. After their argument, she wanted to unkiss the affection they once shared and start anew.
5. To move forward, he had to unkiss the idea that love could conquer all obstacles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unkiss>