

UNKNIT

Meaning: UNKNIT: to undo or unravel knitted fabric or yarn.

1. The artist decided to unknit the tangled yarn to start fresh with a new project.
2. In a moment of frustration, she chose to unknit the entire sweater rather than fix the mistakes.
3. As the storm raged outside, the memories began to unknit the fabric of her past.
4. He watched as the knit blanket slowly began to unknit under the playful paws of the kitten.
5. It became a ritual for them to unknit their worries in the cozy comfort of their favorite café.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unknit>