

UNLAUGH

Meaning: Unlaugh (verb): To diminish or negate laughter or a lighthearted atmosphere, often by displaying seriousness or delivering unamusing content.

1. In a room full of laughter, his serious face seemed to unlaugh the mood.
2. The comedian's attempt at humor fell flat, causing the audience to unlaugh instead of chuckle.
3. She tried to maintain a serious demeanor, but the joke made her unlaugh in spite of herself.
4. The awkward silence that followed his joke felt like an unlaughing moment shared by everyone present.
5. His overly critical response seemed to unlaugh the lighthearted conversation that had just begun.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unlaugh>