

UNLICKED

Meaning: Unlicked: lacking refinement or sophistication; raw or unpolished.

1. The unlicked stamp sat forgotten in the corner of the drawer.
2. He approached the task with an unlicked enthusiasm that was both refreshing and naive.
3. Her hair was still unlicked, a testament to her busy morning routine before the meeting.
4. The unlicked envelope remained sealed, waiting for the right moment to be opened.
5. In the world of art, his unlicked talent was evident, promising great potential yet to be realized.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unlicked>