

UNLOAD

Meaning: Unload: to remove or release a load or burden from a vehicle or to express and relieve emotional burdens.

1. The workers began to unload the delivery truck as soon as it arrived.
2. She decided to unload her worries by talking to a friend about her problems.
3. After the camping trip, we had to unload all the gear from the car.
4. The team worked efficiently to unload the cargo containers at the port.
5. He felt a sense of relief as he managed to unload the heavy boxes from his back.
6. She decided to unload her worries by talking to a close friend.
7. After a long day, he felt the need to unload his frustrations through exercise.
8. They carefully planned how to unload the heavy crates without damaging them.
9. It took several hours to unload the cargo from the ship at the busy port.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unload>