

UNLODGE

Meaning: To un lodge means to remove or dislodge something that is stuck or firmly fixed in place.

1. The mechanic struggled to un lodge the stubborn bolt from the engine.
2. She used a special tool to un lodge the rock that was stuck in the shoe's sole.
3. The storm caused debris to un lodge from the trees, scattering it across the yard.
4. After hours of trying, he finally managed to un lodge the fishing line from the tangled weeds.
5. The dentist worked carefully to un lodge the piece of food that was causing her discomfort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unlodge>