

UNLOOK

Meaning: Unlook (verb): to consciously disregard or overlook something, particularly negative experiences or situations, in order to focus on more positive aspects of life.

1. She decided to unlook the situation and focus on the positive aspects of her life.
2. In an effort to move on, he chose to unlook the past and embrace new opportunities.
3. Sometimes, it's healthier to unlook the drama and prioritize your own peace of mind.
4. By choosing to unlook the negativity around her, she found a newfound sense of happiness.
5. He realized that to grow, he needed to unlook the mistakes he had made and learn from them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unlook>