

UNMAN

Meaning: To unman is to cause someone to lose their courage or confidence, often leaving them feeling weak or speechless.

1. The sudden loud noise seemed to unman him, leaving him momentarily speechless.
2. Her unwavering courage in the face of danger did not unman the soldiers; instead, it inspired them.
3. He felt unmaned by the overwhelming emotions that surged through him during the heartfelt speech.
4. In a moment of vulnerability, he feared that expressing his feelings would unman him in her eyes.
5. The loss of his mentor threatened to unman his confidence, making him question his abilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unman>