

UNMANACLE

Meaning: To unmanacle means to remove restraints or shackles from someone, allowing them to move freely.

1. The judge decided to unmanacle the defendants, allowing them to stand freely during the proceedings.
2. After hours of negotiation, the captors agreed to unmanacle the hostages as a gesture of goodwill.
3. In a moment of compassion, the officer chose to unmanacle the prisoner so he could comfort his ailing friend.
4. At the rally, the activists called for the government to unmanacle those unjustly imprisoned for political reasons.
5. With a swift motion, the guard went to unmanacle the detainee, ensuring his rights were respected.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unmanacle>