UNMEANING

Meaning: Unmeaning: lacking significance or purpose; devoid of meaningful content or value.

1. His comments were so unmeaning that they failed to spark any interest in the conversation.
2. The art piece was criticized for its unmeaning composition that left viewers confused.
3. She found the lecture unmeaning, as it offered no new insights or perspectives.
4. Despite its bright colors, the design felt unmeaning and lacked emotional depth.
5. The unmeaning chatter in the background made it difficult for her to concentrate on her work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unmeaning