

UNMONOPOLIZE

Meaning: To unmonopolize means to eliminate or reduce the dominance of a single entity in a market, thereby promoting competition and diversity among providers.

1. Efforts to unmonopolize the telecommunications industry have increased in recent years.
2. The government is seeking ways to unmonopolize the market to encourage competition and innovation.
3. Activists argue that unmonopolizing essential services will lead to better prices for consumers.
4. To unmonopolize the technology sector, policymakers are considering stricter regulations on mergers and acquisitions.
5. Investors are hesitant to fund startups in industries dominated by a few big players unless they can unmonopolize the market.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unmonopolize>