

UNPARLIAMENTARY

Meaning: Unparliamentary refers to language or remarks that are considered inappropriate, disrespectful, or contrary to the established decorum of parliamentary debate.

1. The speaker was cautioned against using unparliamentary language during the debate.
2. His remarks were deemed unparliamentary and led to a call for decorum in the chamber.
3. The committee chair reminded the members that any unparliamentary comments would be recorded in the official minutes.
4. After her unparliamentary outburst, she faced criticism from colleagues across the aisle.
5. Maintaining civility is crucial in politics, as unparliamentary speech can undermine constructive dialogue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unparliamentary>