

UNPARTIAL

Meaning: Unpartial: adjective describing a state of being fair and impartial, free from bias or favoritism.

1. The judge was praised for her impartial approach to the case, ensuring fairness for both sides.
2. A truly impartial evaluation requires the input of multiple perspectives to avoid bias.
3. In discussions about controversial topics, it is crucial to maintain an impartial stance to foster open dialogue.
4. He sought the advice of an impartial mediator to help resolve the escalating conflict between the two parties.
5. The committee aimed to provide an impartial assessment of the candidates, focusing solely on their qualifications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unpartial>