

UNPLACABLE

Meaning: Unplacable means impossible to calm or soothe; incapable of being appeased or pacified.

1. Her anger was unplacable, persisting long after the argument had ended.
2. The unplacable sorrow in his eyes spoke volumes about his recent loss.
3. Despite their attempts to appease him, his frustration remained unplacable.
4. The unplacable nature of her grief made it difficult for her to move on.
5. Even after several apologies, his disappointment felt unplacable and raw.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unplacable>