

UNPLACED

Meaning: Unplaced refers to a state of feeling out of context, belonging, or position, often resulting in a sense of disconnection or lack of recognition.

1. The artist felt unplaced in the crowded gallery, longing for a more intimate setting.
2. Despite his impressive skills, he remained unplaced on the team due to internal politics.
3. Her unplaced feelings about the move left her feeling anxious and unsettled.
4. He wandered through the city, unplaced and searching for a sense of belonging.
5. After the reshuffling, several employees were left unplaced, unsure of their next steps.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unplaced>