

UNPOSSESS

Meaning: Unpossess (verb): to deprive someone of their confidence, dreams, or possessions.

1. The sudden change in circumstances seemed to unpossess him of all his previous confidence.
2. In the face of adversity, she felt as if she had been unpossessed of her dreams and aspirations.
3. His actions were intended to unpossess the old traditions that no longer served the community.
4. As the storm approached, it seemed to unpossess the tranquil beauty of the landscape.
5. The decision to leave the job was meant to unpossess her from years of unfulfilling work.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unpossess>