

UNPOWER

Meaning: Unpower (verb): To deprive of energy, strength, or enthusiasm; to diminish or weaken.

1. The sudden blackout seemed to unpower the entire neighborhood, leaving residents in confusion.
2. She felt her enthusiasm begin to unpower as the project faced constant setbacks.
3. The new regulations aimed to unpower the monopolistic practices that had long plagued the industry.
4. His harsh criticism seemed to unpower her confidence before the big presentation.
5. They decided to unpower the old machines to make way for more efficient technology.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unpower>