

UNPRAISE

Meaning: To unpraise means to express criticism or diminish the positive assessment of someone or something, often in a way that may undermine their value or efforts.

1. It is difficult to unpraise someone's hard work without undermining their efforts.
2. Critics often feel the need to unpraise a popular book to showcase their literary expertise.
3. Unpraising a colleague's contribution in front of the team can damage morale significantly.
4. In some cultures, it is customary to unpraise excessive compliments to maintain humility.
5. To unpraise the artist's latest work would be to disregard their growth and evolution.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unpraise>