UNPRAY

Meaning: Unpray (verb): To fail to offer prayers or invoke divine protection or guidance for oneself or others.

1. She felt a sense of unease when she realized she had unprayed for her family's safety.

2. The concept of living in a state of unprayed thoughts haunted him during quiet moments.

3. In the chaos of daily life, she often found herself unprayed, forgetting to connect with her inner peace.

4. He decided to unprayed the burdens he had carried for too long, seeking solace in mindfulness.

5. Many people struggle with the feeling of being unprayed, longing for a deeper spiritual connection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unpray