

UNPRAYABLE

Meaning: Unprayerable: too deep or severe to be addressed or alleviated through prayer or spiritual intervention.

1. His grief was so profound that it felt unprayerable, leaving him in a state of utter despair.
2. The situation seemed unprayerable, as hope had all but vanished in the face of overwhelming adversity.
3. In the depths of her sorrow, she encountered emotions that felt unprayerable and beyond the reach of solace.
4. Despite their best efforts, the community faced challenges that seemed unprayerable, testing their faith and resilience.
5. They stood before a tragedy that was truly unprayerable, rendering them speechless and lost for words.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unprayerable>