

UNPRINCIPLE

Meaning: Unprincipled: lacking moral principles or ethics; dishonest or unscrupulous.

1. His unprincipled actions in the negotiation left a bad taste in everyone's mouth.
2. The politician's unprincipled stance on the issue shocked even his most loyal supporters.
3. An unprincipled approach to business often leads to short-term gains but long-term consequences.
4. In a world driven by profit, many have embraced an unprincipled mentality that disregards ethics.
5. She quickly recognized that his unprincipled behavior was not aligned with her values.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unprinciple>