

UNPRINCIPLED

Meaning: Unprincipled refers to lacking moral principles or ethics, often resulting in dishonest or unscrupulous behavior.

1. The unprincipled politician made promises he had no intention of keeping.
2. Her unprincipled actions during the negotiations shocked even her closest allies.
3. In a world where integrity is valued, his unprincipled behavior stood out like a sore thumb.
4. The unprincipled businessman cut corners to maximize profits, disregarding safety regulations.
5. Many people were disillusioned by the unprincipled tactics used in the recent election campaign.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unprincipled>