

UNPRISON

Meaning: To unprison means to release or liberate individuals from wrongful imprisonment or unjust confinement.

1. The activists worked tirelessly to unprison those wrongfully convicted.
2. In his speech, he called for reforms to unprison individuals trapped in the cycle of systemic injustice.
3. Her efforts to unprison the minds of those in confinement were both inspiring and transformative.
4. The documentary aimed to shed light on the injustices that prevent society from fully supporting the unprisoning of the innocent.
5. Through education and advocacy, we can help unprison the potential of individuals who have been marginalized.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unprison>