

UNPROBABLY

Meaning: Unprobably: in a manner that is unexpected or unlikely to occur.

1. The team managed to win the championship unprobably, despite being the underdogs all season.
2. She unprobably found a way to solve the complex puzzle that had stumped everyone else.
3. In an unprobably twist of fate, they ran into an old friend in a foreign country.
4. The weather turned unprobably warm for a winter day, surprising everyone in the city.
5. He unprobably decided to take a different route home, leading to a delightful discovery.
6. She unprobably managed to finish the marathon despite her injury.
7. The cat unprobably leaped from the ground to the rooftop in a single bound.
8. He unprobably solved the complex equation in under a minute.
9. The team unprobably turned the game around in the last few seconds.
10. Her unprobably accurate predictions amazed everyone at the conference.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unprobably>