

UNPRUDENT

Meaning: Unprudent means lacking foresight or wisdom, often resulting in reckless or unwise decisions.

1. Making unprudent financial decisions can lead to serious consequences in the long run.
2. His unprudent remarks during the meeting created unnecessary tension among the team.
3. It was unprudent of her to invest all her savings in a single, risky venture.
4. The unprudent choices made during the project resulted in delays and budget overruns.
5. Choosing to ignore the warnings proved to be an unprudent action that he regretted later.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unprudent>