

UNQUALIFY

Meaning: To unqualify means to revoke or remove someone's eligibility or status as a qualified candidate or applicant.

1. The new regulations will unqualify many applicants who previously met the criteria.
2. In an unexpected turn of events, the committee decided to unqualify the leading candidate due to discrepancies in their application.
3. It's essential to clarify how the decision to unqualify certain participants aligns with the competition's rules.
4. The team was shocked to learn that a minor infraction could unqualify them from the tournament.
5. Efforts to unqualify those who had submitted incomplete forms were met with mixed reactions from the stakeholders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unqualify>