

UNREADINESS

Meaning: Unreadiness refers to a state of being unprepared or lacking readiness for a particular situation or task.

1. Her unreadiness for the exam was evident in her anxious demeanor.
2. The team's unreadiness to adapt to the sudden changes left them at a disadvantage.
3. Despite her talent, her unreadiness to perform in front of an audience held her back.
4. His unreadiness to embrace new ideas was a barrier to the project's success.
5. The project's failure was largely attributed to the group's overall unreadiness for the challenges ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unreadiness>