

UNREASON

Meaning: Unreason: a lack of rational thought or logic, often resulting in irrational behavior or beliefs.

1. His anger seemed utterly unreason, given the circumstances.
2. They dismissed her concerns as mere unreason, failing to see the validity in her worries.
3. In moments of unreason, people often make choices they later regret.
4. The debate turned chaotic, with both sides resorting to unreason instead of rational discourse.
5. It was unreason to expect immediate results after such a short period of effort.
6. Her decision to quit without a backup plan seemed utterly unreasoned.
7. The criticism of his work was based on unreasoned assumptions rather than facts.
8. In an unreasoned outburst, she expressed her frustrations without considering the consequences.
9. It's difficult to understand why he made such an unreasoned choice in the moment.
10. The debate became a tangled mess of unreasoned arguments that failed to convince anyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unreason>