

UNREASONED

Meaning: Unreasoned refers to a lack of logical reasoning or justification, often resulting in impulsive or irrational conclusions.

1. Her unreasoned anger led to a hasty decision that she would later regret.
2. The committee dismissed his unreasoned arguments as lacking any factual basis.
3. In times of crisis, people often make unreasoned choices that they might not consider otherwise.
4. The unreasoned fear of the unknown can hinder progress and innovation.
5. She approached the debate with an unreasoned bias that clouded her judgment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unreasoned>