

UNRELIABLE

Meaning: UNRELIABLE: not able to be depended on or trusted to perform consistently or accurately.

1. The weather forecast proved to be unreliable, leaving us unprepared for the storm.
2. She found it difficult to trust him again after he had been so unreliable in the past.
3. Many consumers avoid that brand because their products are often deemed unreliable.
4. His unreliable memory made it challenging to piece together the events accurately.
5. In a team project, having an unreliable member can jeopardize the entire outcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unreliable>