

UNREPRIEVABLE

Meaning: Unreprievable: impossible to remedy or reverse; irreparable.

1. The judge deemed the defendant's actions as unreprievable, leaving no room for leniency in the sentencing.
2. In her mind, the mistake was unreprievable, a stain on her career that she could never erase.
3. The decision to abandon their loyal allies proved to be an unreprievable error in judgment.
4. He felt that the lost opportunity was unreprievable, a chance that would never come again.
5. Their harsh words created an unreprievable rift between them that seemed impossible to mend.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unreprievable>