

UNREVEREND

Meaning: Unreverend: lacking respect or reverence, especially towards established traditions or norms.

1. The irreverent humor of the comedian was often deemed unreverend by traditionalists.
2. In her novel, the author portrayed an unreverend approach to societal norms that challenged the status quo.
3. His unreverend attitude during the ceremony shocked the more conservative attendees.
4. The film's unreverend take on historical events sparked both outrage and admiration from critics.
5. She appreciated the unreverend commentary in the podcast, which made her question her own beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unreverend>