

UNROLL

Meaning: To unroll means to open or spread out something that is rolled up, such as a scroll or sleeping bag.

1. She carefully began to unroll the ancient scroll, revealing its faded text.
2. As soon as the sun came up, they decided to unroll the sleeping bags and start their day.
3. The artist will unroll the canvas to reveal her latest masterpiece at the exhibition.
4. He took a deep breath before he would unroll the map and trace their planned route.
5. With a swift motion, she managed to unroll the ribbon and decorate the gift beautifully.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unroll>