

UNROOF

Meaning: Unroof (verb): to remove or strip off the roof of a structure.

1. The storm was so fierce that it managed to unroof several houses in the neighborhood.
2. When the old barn collapsed, it unroofed a hidden cache of vintage tools inside.
3. As the renovation began, they discovered they had to unroof much of the structure to assess the damage.
4. The wind howled through the trees, threatening to unroof the tents set up for the festival.
5. He watched in horror as the tornado approached, knowing it would unroof his childhood home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unroof>