

UNSALABLE

Meaning: UNSALABLE: not able to be sold, often due to being damaged, outdated, or undesirable.

1. The store decided to donate the unsalable merchandise to a local charity.
2. After the product recall, many items became unsalable and were marked down heavily.
3. Due to poor marketing, the once-popular brand found itself with an unsalable inventory.
4. The unsalable goods were taking up valuable shelf space, prompting a clearance sale.
5. Unsold seasonal items are often classified as unsalable once the holiday rush is over.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unsalable>